Dear President, very dear Joe,

During these trying times, it is reassuring to see that the Italian Heritage & Culture Committee of New York continues to actively promoting the Italian culture and heritage in the United States. This year, your focus on the well-known screenwriter and director Federico Fellini, on the occasion of the 100th anniversary of his birth, has a significant impact on society.

A retrospective of great cinema and guidance will give viewers a chance to experience true Italian creativity and imagination.

I look forward to virtually participating in your interesting events.

With my very best regards,

Francesco Genuardi
Consul General of Italy in New York

*With admiration and friendship,
hope to see you
soon,
Francesco*
